

A Clinical Primer on Restless Legs Syndrome: What We Know, and What We Don't Know

This supplement to The American Journal of Managed Care provides a clinical overview of restless legs syndrome, including epidemiology, etiology, and pathophysiology, as well as clinical features, impact on quality of life, and management.

■ Faculty

Shyamal H. Mehta, MD, PhD

Assistant Professor
Movement Disorders Program
Georgia Health Sciences University
Augusta, Georgia

Kapil D. Sethi, MD, FRCP

Director
Movement Disorders Program
Professor of Neurology
Georgia Health Sciences University
Augusta, Georgia

■ Disclosures

These faculty report relationships with the following organizations:

Kapil D. Sethi, MD, FRCP

Consultant/Advisory Board:

Impax, Teva

Employment (part-time):

Merz Pharmaceuticals

Grants:

Abbott, Acadia, Impax, National Institutes of Health,
National Parkinson Foundation

Honoraria/lecture fees:

Teva

Shyamal H. Mehta, MD, PhD

Consultant:

Allergan Inc, GE Healthcare, Ipsen, Merz Pharmaceuticals, Teva,
US World Meds

Signed disclosures are on file at the office of The American Journal of Managed Care, Plainsboro, New Jersey.