

FINALIST

Kevin Schug received the Ph.D. in Chemistry in 2002 from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & SU, Blacksburg, Virginia, and was advised by Professor Emeritus Harold M. McNair. His Ph.D. dissertation was titled: “Pseudo Molecular Ion Formation by Aromatic Acids in Negative Ionization Mode Electrospray Ionization Mass Spectrometry”.

He is currently an assistant professor with the Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry, The University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, TX. From 2003 to 2005, he was a postdoctoral fellow in the Department of Analytical Chemistry and Food Chemistry, Universität Wien (University of Vienna), Vienna, Austria, advised by Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Lindner.

He is a member of the American Chemical Society, American Society for Mass Spectrometry, and was funded by the NSF for his participation in the “Academic Careers in Chemistry” workshop at the Eastern Analytical Symposium 2001, Atlantic City, NJ.

He has been published in 16 peer-reviewed articles and has given numerous invited presentations at conferences around the world.
