

Age-related Macular Degeneration (AMD) Awareness Month: Awareness Makes a Difference

February 2014

Prevent Blindness Ohio invites you to participate in AMD Awareness Month, a month-long awareness campaign about the risks for age-related macular degeneration (AMD). AMD Awareness Month is held during the month of February along with Low Vision Awareness Month.

Please learn more about AMD and Low Vision by checking out the information below.

Awareness Makes a Difference: AMD Facts
Awareness Makes a Difference: AMD Facts \(large print\)
Age-related Macular Degeneration \(AMD\) Website
Living Well with Low Vision Website

Request a free Amsler Grid magnet to check your eyes daily for vision loss from macular degeneration.

