

Generic treatment claims may not hold water, page 60.

Features

Business Strategies

44 In the Eye of the Storm

Jan Malek, Patrick Kager, Deloitte Consulting
Industry CEOs, board members, investors, and employees must prepare for the turbulent times to come.

Legal Issues

52 Generics Battle Heats Up

Philippe Bennett, Amy Manning, Thomas Parker, Coudert Brothers LLP
Pharma may file fewer patents if FDA exclusivity determination trends continue.

Legal Issues

60 Generic Treatment Claims: Do They Hold Water?

Tamsen Valoir, PhD
Jenkins & Gilchrist, PC
An important case involving Eli Lilly may soon decide the validity of generic treatment claims.

Contents

GEORGE TATE

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

30 HBA's 2003 Woman of the Year

by Joanna Breitstein,
Senior Associate Editor
Catherine Sohn, vice-president of worldwide business development for GlaxoSmithKline's Consumer Healthcare, uses her past experience to build the business' future. Her combination of technical and marketing knowledge, business acumen, and dedication to patients makes her this year's HBA Woman of the Year.

Cover photography by George Tate. Art direction by Barbara Mickelson.

Contents continued on page 10

Contents continued

Marketers | Mix

NEWS

- 70 CME Sponsors Beware
- 71 OTC Thought Leaders
- 72 AMP Pushes Report
- 74 Novartis Fights Back

WINDOWS

- 71 People
- 72 Launches
- 74 Accounts in Action
- 74 Awards

COLUMNS

- 76 Commentary
- 78 Agency Forum
- 80 Commentary

FEATURES

- Clinical Trials*
- 82 Pharma Wants You
Kathleen Drennan
Clinical trials are agencies' new proving ground.
- Med Ed*
- 90 CME Suppliers: Are You Getting Your Money's Worth?
Andy Bender
Executives should develop benchmarking databases and encourage product managers to use them.

Features continued

Regulatory Issues

66 The Ten Commandments of FDA Approval

Jonathan Seltzer, MD
George Ehrlich, MD
Companies can avoid costly regulatory delays and decreased corporate valuation by following a "righteous" path.

Columns

14 From the Editor

What They're Not Saying

Patrick Clinton
PE's new editor-in-chief says the tricky thing about the pricing argument is that it's not about money.

24 Washington Report

Rx Coverage Debate Moves to Capitol Hill

Jill Wechsler
Congress rejects the latest Medicare reform plan but takes action on patient safety and medical malpractice.

28 Euro Report

US Derailed WTO Decision

Sarah Houlton, PhD
The problem of poor countries' access to affordable life-saving medicines is still unresolved.

April's supplement offers best practice models in patient relations from Novartis and global team building from Pharmacia plus features on clinical trial and corporate communications, ad and PR agency collaboration, and more.

Departments

16 World Watch

Bayer's future is uncertain and Bristol-Myers Squibb is still taking blows.

94 People Update

96 Calendar

Services

97 Professional Services

98 Advertisers