Description

Fette America Inc., North America's leader in precision tablet press technology, is a subsidiary of world-class, German-based manufacturer Fette GmbH. Founded in 1991, Fette America offers a variety of services to clients in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico, including new and used machine sales, technical assistance, machine installations, training and seminars, validation, maintenance, spare parts, and tooling.

Products and services

Fette's complete line of tablet presses include fully automated presses with hands-off/lights-out production; a full-containment "Wash-In-Place" tableting system; a high-containment system that removes active compounds and toxic product dust; die table segments that can increase output up to 25%; and a "102i Tablet Press" specifically designed for use in the trial and development stage of new products.
