LENS CAMEL SCULPTURE

Born from the intuitive process of blind contour drawing, the Camel Sculpture stands as the centrepiece of the Lens collection. Its single, bold curve captures the tension and grace of an arched back in yoga's camel pose, also known as ustrasana—one of the most intense and emotive poses in yoga that opens up the front of the body. Originally rendered by Bec Snelling in charcoal on paper, this pose has been translated into stainless steel and glass for the Camel Sculpture. Within this sculpture, both serenity and strength are evoked, mirroring and reflecting from its polished surface.
