MICROMILSPEC PRESENTS

THE VOYAGEUR

Oslo, March 27th, 2025 – Blending maritime tradition, military heritage, and horology, MICROMILSPEC is proud to unveil the VOYAGEUR, a custom timepiece created by members of 132nd Naval Security Unit, a specialized maritime security unit focused on protecting assets from foreign intelligence activities, sabotage, and other security threats.

Limited to just 25 pieces and offered exclusively on a made-to-order basis, the VOYAGEUR watch captures the essence of the units distinctive operational environment.

Designed with tactical details and maritime inspiration, the VOYAGEUR features a robust brushed stainless steel case rated to 20 ATM (200 meters) water resistance. Powering the watch is a Swiss Made automatic mechanical movement with a date complication. A sea inspired dial, sapphire crystal, and a compass bezel.

The civilian edition of VOYAGEUR can be ordered online starting March 27th, 18:00 CET 2025, at: <https://www.micromilspec.com/products/voyageur>

Since its inception in 2019 in Oslo, MICROMILSPEC has carved a niche in designing custom watches for elite military units, law enforcement agencies, and first responders. While many of their creations remain exclusive to these groups—some even classified—MICROMILSPEC gained international acclaim with their U.S. Space Force release, featured in esteemed publications like GQ, HYPEBEAST, Fratello, and Monochrome Watches. In 2024, they introduced the MILGRAPH, a tactical chronograph developed from over 40 custom military projects. Originally designed for Special Operations Forces, this distinctive design led to a nomination for Best Microbrand of 2024 by Oracle Time. The MILGRAPH's popularity has solidified MICROMILSPEC's reputation as a leading player in the field of professional watches.
