Team Lead – Youth Well-Being Team
Full-time contract position
Until March 2022
with possible extension based on funding
Position is based in Sioux Lookout

Position Summary

The Team Lead oversees the development and delivery of programs, interventions, and service coordination for mental wellness services for youth from Shibogama communities who are away from home while attending school or receiving specialized counselling/health services.

Duties and responsibilities of the position include:

- Provide administrative supervision and support to program staff, resource people and contractors to ensure that program objectives and workplans are met according to funding requirements and the priorities identified by the Shibogama communities.
- Oversee clinical case management of youth referred for counselling and other specialized services.
- Monitor programming and activities to ensure youth accessing the program are receiving appropriate services in accordance with their identified needs and service parameters of the program.

Required qualifications and experience:

- Master's level degree in Social Work, Psychology or another relevant discipline is preferred. Relevant education and training in combination with a Bachelor level degree in an applicable field may also be considered.
- Two years management/administration experience in First Nations' mental health and services.
- Five years direct service experience in mental health counselling with individuals and families living in First Nation communities.
- Knowledge and experience in working with First Nation, provincial and federal government systems of health.
- Membership or membership qualification in a recognized provincial regulatory body is preferred.
