Shibogama Youth – Determining Our Pathways to Success
Youth Outreach Worker
Full-time, Term Position based in Sioux Lookout

Position Summary:

The Youth Outreach Coordinator (YOC) works with the Program Coordinator to meet the deliverables of the project. The YOC plays a key role in being the connector to youth to engage them in project activities. The YOC also works collaboratively with other youth program staff members in linking Shibogama youth with services and activities that support their overall well-being while attending school in Sioux Lookout. The YOC reports directly to the Program Coordinator.

Qualifications:

- Post secondary education in social services, youth services and/or recreation.
- Minimum two years' recent experience supporting Indigenous youth.
- Excellent communication skills: oral, written, and interpersonal. Fluency in Oji-Cree is preferred.
- Availability and flexibility to work evenings and weekends.
- Must be willing and able to travel as required to fly-in communities.
- Provide a clean, current CPIC and VSS.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Plan, coordinate and facilitate outreach activities.
- Develop and maintain an effective working partnership with the Shibogama Youth Council.
- Interact with Shibogama communities and other relevant stakeholders to determine ways to meet the requirements.
- Advocate for youth for services required.
- Complete all required documentation and statistical activities.
- Adhere to organization's policies and procedures.
- Other duties as required.
