Youth Outreach Worker – Youth Well-Being Team

Full-time, term until March 31, 2023, with possibility of extension based on funding

Position based in Sioux Lookout

Position Summary

The Youth Outreach Worker (YOW) works collaboratively with other members of the Youth Well-Being Team to ensure the safety and overall well-being of youth from Shibogama communities who are away from their home communities attending high school or receiving specialized mental health services while in Sioux Lookout. The YOW also finds creative and effective ways to engage with youth living in Shibogama communities to connect them with program services and activities. This includes using virtual technology, such as Zoom Meetings, Facebook, etc.

Qualifications and Experience Related to the Position Include:

- Post secondary education in social services, youth services and/or recreation. Other education/training/experience relevant to the position will be considered.
- Minimum two years' recent experience supporting Indigenous youth in a community program setting, providing recreational programming and/or other relevant work experiences.
- Demonstrated interpersonal skills, with the ability to form and maintain sound working partnerships with individuals of various backgrounds.
- Working knowledge in various computer programs, software, and virtual technology.
- Availability to work evenings and on weekend is required.
- Successful candidate must provide a clean, current CPIC and VSS
