

THE IMPACT OF HARM REDUCTION PROGRAMS ON LAW ENFORCEMENT IN SOUTHEAST ASIA: What Works and What Doesn't

03 July 2012

9am-5pm

Pathumwan Princess Hotel, 444 MBK Center,
Phayathai Road, Wangmai, Pathumwan, Bangkok.

Harm reduction programs are a vital component of efforts to combat HIV in the Southeast Asia region. The Nossal Institute for Global Health (Australia) in collaboration with the Institute of Social Development Studies (Vietnam), the National Institute of Public Health, (Cambodia), and the University of Health Science (Laos) have recently completed research into the effects of harm reduction programs on law enforcement policy and practice.

This seminar will feature dissemination of these research findings, the official launch of the research monograph, and discussion on the practical implications of the research.

Please RSVP as soon as possible as places are limited, to Matthew Allen.
