

Gender Matters@

Sex, Drugs and a Rocky War:

A Panel Discussion on Gender and Drugs

~

Thursday, November 17, 2011

Centre for Culture, Media and Creative Industries (CMCI)

Room 7C, Chesham Building

King's College London, Strand Campus, WC2R 2LS

6:00pm – 7:30pm

refreshments reception to follow

~

Panel Presenters and Topics:

Emily Crick: MPhil Candidate at Swansea University – A Brief History of International Drug Laws and the Absence of Gender

Jane Slater: Transform Operations and Funding Manager, Transform Drug Policy Foundation – Gender: Counting the Costs of the Drug War

Francesca Tronco Garcia: former member of the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in Mexico – Obscurity and Impunity: An Overview of the Gendered Effects of the Militarization under the Mexican War on Drugs

For more information or for accessibility requirements, please contact camille.stengel@kcl.ac.uk