

Australian Government

AusAID

VACANCY

AusAID's HIV/AIDS Asia Regional Program (HAARP) in Cambodia

HARM REDUCTION SPECIALIST

To provide technical support to HAARP Cambodia Program to enable the Country Support Unit (CSU) to effectively and efficiently manage and implement the program in Cambodia. In doing so, contribute to the achievement of high quality development outcomes for AusAID.

The annual remuneration package is 80,000 USD commensurate with skills and experience.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

This position will provide technical support to the HAARP Cambodia CSU to smoothly manage and implement program toward its goals, objectives and milestones. The Technical Adviser is expected to manage work with a high level of autonomy. Responsibilities may vary from time to time in response to changing work pressures, projects and activities.

- Policy and strategy
- Technical Support
- Capacity building
- Monitoring and evaluation and research
- Program management
- Communication and liaison
- Team work

REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum of 10 years' experience in HIV/AIDS Harm Reduction programming
- Have program design experience for programs related to HIV/AIDS amongst marginalised populations
- Experience in working on MMT program implementation and providing support to agencies involved
- Experience in developing standard operating procedures for harm reduction interventions
- Experience in developing design and implementation of needle and syringe programs
- Experience in working with government, non-government and UN agencies
- Experience in representational roles at country and regional level forums
- Relevant work experience in South East Asia
- Experience in monitoring and evaluation of health interventions would be desirable
- Skills in developing strategic documents, pipeline plans, work plans and frameworks in relation to harm reduction interventions.

TOP recruitment

C A M B O D I A

For the full Job Description and to apply for this position please email:

veasna@top-recruitment.com

135 Building A, Phnom Penh Centre
Corner Sothearos & Sihanouk Blvds
Phnom Penh, Kingdom of Cambodia
www.top-recruitment.com