

People and Dancefloors: Narratives of Drug-taking

Join us for the launch of People and Dancefloors. A short film made by and with people engaged in drug and club culture.

6.30pm
Friday 22 November

Based on collaborative research between a filmmaker, an activist, project participants, and researcher Dr Giulia Zampini, People and Dancefloors is a wider engagement project that aims to provide a platform to voice drug users' experiences and spark debate about drug policy.

Reception and screening: a reception with drinks and nibbles will be held in the Heritage Gallery, Queen Anne 077 from 6.30pm, followed by the film screening and panel in Queen Anne 080 from 7.30pm.

Address: Queen Anne Building, University of Greenwich, Old Royal Naval College, Park Row, London, SE10 9LS

Tickets: peopleanddancefloors-tickets.eventbrite.co.uk

Email: G.F.Zampini@greenwich.ac.uk

Facebook: facebook.com/PeopleandDancefloors/

Twitter: @PDancefloors