

27th Harm Reduction International Conference - #HR23

IDPC ROADMAP

The IDPC Secretariat is involved in the following events that we invite you to join!

Monday, 17 April

Workshop 3

Promoting decriminalisation, and solidarity across movements

16:00 - 17:30 · In person (Room: 217)

Facilitated by Pann Ei Kham, Gloria Lai, Adrià Cots Fernández

Side meeting 9

Supporting people who use drugs in Africa – What's working in policy and practice?

17:00 - 19:00 · In person (Room: 218)

Organised by EJAF, VOCAL Kenya & IDPC

Tuesday, 18 April

Concurrent 14

Regulated Markets as Harm Reduction

14:00 - 15:30 · In person (Room 220)

Imminent danger. Building harm reduction responses to prevent corporate capture in regulated drug markets - Presented by Adria Cots Fernandez

Side meeting 5

Stagnation, collapse or reform? The way ahead for the global drug policy regime

16:00 - 18:30 · In person (Room 206)

Organised by IDPC

Wednesday, 19 April

Major 9

Punitive Policy: Prohibition, Progress and Possibilities

11:00 - 12:30 · Hybrid (Room: 212)

Making numbers count: Assessing The Global Drug Policy Index as an Advocacy Tool - Presented by Ann Fordham

Workshop 7

'Support. Don't Punish' – A prison abolitionist call?

11:00 - 12:30 · In person (Room: 217)

Facilitated by Juan Fernández Ochoa

Concurrent 21

Advocating for Drug Policy Reform: Examples from Around the World

14:00 - 15:30 · Hybrid (Room: 212)

Growing intersectional feminism in drug policy advocacy in Southeast Asia - Presented by Gloria Lai

Concurrent 22

Treatment by Force: Mandatory Detention and Treatment of People who Use Drugs

14:00 - 15:30 · Hybrid (Room: 213)

A year of radical drug policy reforms in Thailand: lessons learned and gaps that remain - Presented by Unchisa Eaimtong

Booth # 7

Support. Don't Punish & Mainline

Drop us a visit to exchange ideas on advocacy and campaigning, stock up on goodies, and take snaps at our photo booth!

Posters

Using harm reduction to resist police violence: Experiences and lessons from Cracolândia, Brazil

Authored by Ana Luiza Uwai, Karin di Monteiro, Janaina Gonçalves, Maria Angélica Comis, Adrià Cots Fernández.