

Biography Svetlana Sigalova

Svetlana Sigalova was appointed Chief Financial Officer of Cosmo in November 2024. In this role, she is responsible for the company's global financial strategy, capital allocation, and investor relations, supporting Cosmo's transformation into a leading specialty pharma and med-tech company.

Svetlana brings more than 15 years of international experience in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology sectors, where she has consistently delivered impact at the intersection of business, finance, and systems. Before joining Cosmo, she served as Vice President of Commercial and Corporate Finance at Moderna, where she played a key role in developing the company's global financial infrastructure and planning capabilities.

Earlier in her career, Svetlana held senior leadership roles at Alexion Pharmaceuticals and Vertex Pharmaceuticals. At both organizations, she managed multibillion-dollar revenue portfolios, built high-performing finance teams across multiple geographies, and partnered with executive leadership to drive operational excellence, margin expansion, and sustainable growth.

With a strong track record of shaping finance organizations into strategic business partners, Svetlana is passionate about enabling innovation while maintaining financial discipline. She is deeply engaged in fostering trusted relationships with investors, boards, and cross-functional teams to ensure transparency, accountability, and long-term value creation.

Svetlana holds a Master of Business Administration and has lived and worked across Europe and the United States, bringing a truly global perspective to her leadership.
