

FALL
2024

infinite possibilities
fall market

ARCHITECTURAL products

José Manuel Ferrero
for Kriskadecor

product Satin
standout From the estudi{H}ac creative director, the Weaving collection reimagines the atelier's aluminum chains as installations, adding depth and texture as space dividers, wallcoverings, or architectural ceiling fixtures. kriskadecor.com

Steven Gertner
of Goux Studio New York

product Plus standout The Brooklyn-based designer, who grew up hanging around his grandparents' hardware biz, channels the iconic cruciform columns of Ludwig Mies van der Rohe in his first line, which includes wall-mount aluminum hooks. gouxstudio.com

Michael DiTullo
for Kirei

product HyperFly Baffle standout Curvy recycled-PET acoustic baffles specifiable in an array of hues, including spicy Cayenne, are the brainchild of the industrial designer, head of product innovation for Kirei's parent brand Carnegie Acoustic Solutions. kireiusa.com

Matiya Marovich
for Bankston Architectural product Super

standout The Aussie architect and director of Sans-Arc Studio drew on principles of geometry and balanced contrast to create substantial (yet thoughtful!) brass levers, knobs, and pulls in powder-coats including Neutralis, a cool-white semi-gloss. bankston.com