This 2 double bedroom home is perfect for couples, retirees or investors. Perfectly designed for the North facing site, the home features an open plan living and kitchen area that connects well to the outdoor space. The main bathroom is well appointed, between the 2 bedrooms. With neutral decor and quality fixtures and fittings throughout, and a great location close to schools and amenities, this home really presents good value for money.

Fringed by vines, this new development will retain and celebrate its unique location, with pride of place reserved for the iconic Wooing Tree. The vineyard and its cellar door will remain a key focus of the development, the beating heart of the wonderful new neighbourhood. The development will also be supported by carefully selected hospitality and retail businesses that will promote the local wine and tourism industry.
