Your own home in a connected community. Spring Grove Lifestyle Village brings together like-minded active over 55 year retirees or semi-retirees, each in their own freehold property. An open village setting with a central gathering place will create a wealth of opportunities for residents to forge new connections, yet provide the freedom and space they want to live the life they choose. Plus, with properties owned freehold, the potential for growth is far greater than a traditional retirement village. Connected yet open, spacious and inviting, with potential for growth, Spring Grove Lifestyle Village offers a range of new home options in a secure and welcoming community.
