P 2008.22.15	Van Johnson greets Ball Ground Boy Scouts The above photograph shows movie actor Van Johnson surrounded by the Ball Ground Boy Scouts. This picture was taken in the MGM Studios in Hollywood during the Scouts recent tour of the West. This visit to the studio was one of the highlights of the trip. It is a difficult problem to get inside the big gates into one of the large studios; then to find a movie actor that has time to see you is still another problem. All this was accomplished through the efforts and cooperation of some Atlanta friends of scouting. Sitting left to right are Charles Vaughn, Bobbie Stoner, Harold Wheeler, Hoyt Heard, Lanier Ingram, Melvin Ingram, Bill Lawson. Kneeling are Bob Hawkins, Bill Green, Raymond Holcomb, G.S. Haygood, Thomas Wood, Don Avery, Basil Holcomb, Sanford Lawson, and Lamar Lawson. Standing are Scoutmaster E.C. Grogan, Jim Lumpkin, Buddy Purcell, Edwin Stoner, Hubbard Hardin, Van Johnson, Lee Grogan, David Harris, Alfred Roberts, Fred Ingram, Cecil Ingram, and Roy Cobb, Jr.			Fourth Floor Storage

P 2011.30.5	Old Cherokee Mine in Sixes Description from Lisa Tressler: Old Cherokee mine in Sixes (one that still has ruins on Allatoona shore). The men in front are Mr Freeborn, Frank Tumlin, and H.H. (Bud) Hillhouse. I don't know the 3 in back. I believe Mr Freeborn ran the mine, I know both of my great-grandfathers (Tumlin & Hillhouse) worked there at times. Although this could be a photo of a well at the mine, the tank/pipes in back, the fact			Third Floor Storage that Bud is holding a gold pan, and the width of the shaft make me believe that this is one of the vertical shafts from the mine (there were still several vertical shafts open when I was a kid, so I know they had them). Frank Tumlin was killed in an accident in 1913, so this photo can be no later than that.

Electronic Image	Description from Lisa Tressler: The photos are of my grandfather (center) and the steam powered engine / portable sawmill he owned. He was based in Sixes, but would travel to different sites to cut the lumber then sell to Stephens Lumber in Holly Springs. Lewis Gresham now owns one of these, so I've included two recent photos which show the entire machinery. The family owned two so it may not be the exact one, but they were both the same model. The rear wheel and gear of the steam engine are in the right foreground of the old photo, and Bob Hillhouse is sitting on the drive belt of the sawmill.

Evan Fleming's last mule, Betsy, standing next to the crib at the farm. One of the Jersey milk cows is behind - either Curly or Pet. We kids named the mule. I named Curly, because I was there when she was born, and she had curly hair on her head. I was only 5. I did not know that all calves have curly hair on their heads. Frank and I originally named Pet (who was Curly's calf), but we named her Margie, after Margie Rucker (who Frank was sweet on at the time). Granddad changed her name to Pet. She was the calf that we rode bareback around the farm. Our names were not near as descriptive as Granddads!! 8. The barn with Tip (the collie) and Rebel and Pandora (the Boston Terriers) 9. Emma Sorrells Pitts - hand colored photo. Grandmother Fleming (Erah Pitts Fleming) always told me that this picture of her mother was taken in November, and the frost had yet to kill the petunias. The average first frost for Bowman is around October 15. 3. Queen Elizabeth, the pet of Battery B. This is the gun that Howard Pitts (brother of Erah Pitts Fleming) was assigned to in the 53rd Artillery, C.A.C. This was a coastal artillery group that manned rail mounted coastal artillery in France during WWI. The Queen Elizabeth was a 14 inch gun, similar to those used on battleships, and the most powerful weapon of its time. This same information can be found on the web at the following: http://freepages.military.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~cacunithistories/53rd_Arty_Bty_B.html 4. Masonic Resolution of Respect for David Jackson Pitts 5. Howard Pitts 6. Velma Pitts (sister of Erah Pitts Fleming) - I am guessing that the man with her is her first husband and father of Frank Tidwell. I believe he was killed in some type of fight, the conditions of which were always mysterious to us. 7. Howard Pitts in his helmet and gas mask from his war days. Grandmother Fleming had both of these in her possession. She gave the helmet to Aunt Jewel's son, Buddy. Frank had the gas mask. I'm not sure if it survived the fire. We played with these helmets and gas masks as kids. I still have Granddad Fleming's. 8. Unknown. The girl on the left looks like a Pitts. My first guess is that this was at the Bowers house, next door to Dave Pitts' house in Bowman. I'll have to do some research to find out for sure.

34. This photo documents 115 bushels of corn per acre (when the average yield was about 25 bushels per acre) grown in 1911 by Ernest Pitts (on the mule) for a School Industrial Club Contest. This was on the "acre lot" at the farm, which was irrigated from the "water ditch" above where water from the creek was diverted for irrigation far upstream. The man in the foreground wearing the vest is David Jackson Pitts. I believe the old man standing next to Ernest and the mule is Drury Young Pitts, father of D.J. Pitts.

63. Elizabeth Stone in the den. Our toys were kept in the area below the TV.

64. Frank & David Stone in the den. 1945 edition of Encyclopedia Britannica on the top shelf.

65. David, Frank, and Elizabeth Stone. 1954 Chevrolet DelRay Sport Coupe behind (baby blue).

66. David, Frank, & Elizabeth Stone

67. David Stone - Christmas 1965, with a 5 string banjo from Sears, Roebuck & Co. The couch is the same one as in #41, but has since been recovered.

68. Our first live Christmas tree, a Norwegian Spruce, that afterwards we planted dead center under the power line. We didn't think to look up!

69. Frank Stone in the living room of Ernest and Elsie Stone.

70. Our first English Bulldog, Georgia Victoria Scarlett (called Tori).

71. Pandora (Pandy) and Rebel with a view of the home-made picket fence that was to keep them contained, but which never seemed to do the job!

72. The new house - built in 1960.

73. David Stone - Christmas 1965. Instruction materials for the banjo on the floor behind - it came with a 45 rpm record and fingering charts. You learned to play along with "Red River Valley". The pajamas were made from chicken feed sacks. The ring on my left hand is my class ring from North Canton Elementary School - class of '65.

74. Ernest Stone, Christmas 1965. The picture was taken by Elizabeth with her Instamatic Camera with a flash cube - the latest technology of the time.

75. Boston Terriers Pandy (daughter) and Rebel (father) - contemplating a break for the neighbor's hog pen. Nothing like a good waller to revive your spirits.

76. Frank and Pebble Stone - somewhere on vacation.

77. One of our vacations with a historic theme.

78. Undoubtedly, more history.

79. And yet more history.

80. Torie as a puppy with Helen Stone. In the carport is our 1967 Chevelle Malibu (midnight blue) and the 1958 Chevrolet Apache 3100 (royal blue) several years before it met with the tree on a downhill backwards plunge.

81. One of Elizabeth Stone's Siamese cats.

82. Helen Stone with Torie and Rebel.

83. Torie the bulldog meets Snappy the rabbit.

84. Torie searching for Snappy, who has temporarily given her the slip.

85. Elizabeth Stone's Siamese cat in the warmest spot in the house. That is our first color TV.

86. Torie in hot pursuit - Snappy on the run.

87. Debra Hogue Stone with Sarah Lynn Stone

88. Erah Pitts Fleming in the dahlia patch with her prize winning dahlias. She was pleased when they were as big as a dinner plate - as these were.

89. David Stone holding Sarah Stone, and Gail Voiles Stone holding Jason Stone. The jacket David is wearing is the same one that Sarah puked all over the previous Christmas. This was taken at the farm in Bowman.

90. David & Gail Stone

91. Jason and Sarah Stone in front of our first soybean crop, 1977. Grandmother Fleming was so impressed that our soybeans were so tall. Her eyesight was not good enough to tell that it was actually a prolific crop of cockleburrs that were towering above the soybeans.

92. Elsie Stone

93. Frank Stone holding Jason Stone

P 2014.2.4 Electronic Image	Image of Fairview Club Membership Card for R.A. Dewar donated by Sue Cochran (who has the original). The following information was obtained by Kathy Day about the golf club: This is what Charles Ingram and John Carver told me they knew by word of mouth. The golf course was on the left side of Hwy 5 going north. There is a small lake, always muddy looking, that you can see from the road. The closest intersection is Ray Mtn Rd. Charles said the golf course was on the other side of the lake and that it was a big course. Mr. DeWear was an avid golfer and probably responsible for having a golf course in Nelson. Electronic Image	Robert's Lake Boy Scouts Male beauty pageant Police Chief Warren Whitfield Haithcock Bridge Image 10 Boy Scouts Van Johnson greets Ball Ground Boy Scouts The above photograph shows movie actor Van Johnson surrounded by the Ball Ground Boy Scouts. This picture was taken in the MGM studios in Hollywood during the Scouts recent tour of the West. This visit to the studio was one of the highlights of the trip. It is a difficult problem to get inside the big gates into one of the large studios; then to find a movie actor that has time to see you is still another problem. All this was accomplished through the efforts and cooperation of some Atlanta friends of scouting. Sitting left to right are Charles Vaughn, Bobbie Stoner, Harold Wheeler, Hoyt Heard, Lanier Ingram, Melvin Ingram, Bill Lawson. Kneeling are Bob Hawkins, Bill Green, Raymond Holcomb, G.S. Haygood, Thomas Wood, Don Avery, Basil Holcomb, Sanford Lawson, and Lamar Lawson. Standing are Scoutmaster E.C. One bright September morning about eleven years ago the class of '49 rolled off with a bang down the rugged path of knowledge.

We shall always remember instances of that first day at school in our surroundings. Things like Mae Shipp's being put in the baby bed by Mrs. Haworth, and Miss Deal's teaching Susan that it was not polite to chase little boys. We won't forget either how frightened we were when our parents let go of our hands and made us stay with all those strangers; we thought we were completely deserted, and we had a lost sensation in the pit of our stomachs. Now that same feeling returns as we prepare to enter another world, even more frightening than when we entered school.

On graduation day from the seventh grade we increased in stature (we thought) by three inches and we considered ourselves fully equal to Miss Chavous' English. But much to our horror we later learned that Miss Monday had something even more dreadful in store for us. After conjugating verbs, declining nouns, and having to give up the idea of reclining in our desks, we conquered the life of Shakespeare.

Our Junior year was filled with the anticipation of becoming seniors and the excitement of planning the Junior-Senior Prom, but we came to feel that as seniors we would be capable of meeting any obstacles that might arise. Now, though that we are seniors we feel smaller and more humble as we see the future looming large on the horizon and realize the responsibility that will soon be ours.

The first big event of our senior year was the arrival of our rings; then we felt that we really had become seniors. The year flew by so swiftly that we hardly had time to realize its passing. Among the outstanding seniors of '49 are Barbara Young, noted for her piano playing; Joye Lawson for her activities as president of the Beta, Tri-Hi-Y, and FHA clubs; Robert Frady for being president of the senior class and his athletic abilities; Tubby Frady for his sportsmanship; Ronnie Payne for his intellectual ability; his cooperation with all the clubs, his acting as secretary and treasurer of the senior class; Bobby Vaughn for being valedictorian.

During our school years we have watched new teachers and students come and go, and that it is our turn to leave, we feel reluctant, although our blue gowns await us.

While visiting Bill Johnston one day in Woodstock, he led us off into a dark, obscure corner of the barn where he had just completed his new invention, a time machine. Impressively, he informed us that we were to be the first witnesses of his experiment. We decided to peer into the future of some of Canton High's illustrious seniors and this is what we found:

Perry Jones is now the captain of his own fishing schooner the "Marietta" with Billy "Bones" Barnes and Roy Nealey as his cabin boys. Perry fishes off the coast at New England, and he finds a good market for his fish in Frank Inghoson's fish factory.

Capitol Recording Company with Ray Holcombe as president, has just released Jeanne Blackstock's latest record, "St. Louis Blues" help of Olen Lattem's orchestra. Ralph Bishop is starring in the Metropolitan Opera production of "La Traviata" with Betty Haley as the leading lady.

Jeannette Vaughn is the head hat-check girl at "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe," and Louise Bishop is featured as "The

	Golden Girl in the Ziegfield Follies. Right down B, roadway is the most famous men's store in that section of New York, Bobby Vaughn's "Four Brothers." Bobby himself was away at the time, for he was sailing around the world in his private yacht, but Marvin Satterfield had business well under control. Dropping by the Old North Church in Boston we discovered a wedding in progress between society debutante, Joye Lawson, and W. L. Ponder, president of the Texas Oil Company, with Billy Owen officiating as pastor. Tootsie Hardin was playing the piano, and of the matron-of-honor, Mrs. Robert Frady (the former Miss Ann Bickley) was just beginning
	to come down the aisle. Sara Pruitt and Betty Evans, star reporters on the "New York Herald" were bridesmaids. Joanne Dunwoody and Ronnie Payne, two popular Hollywood stars. have just completed their latest picture. "Cassalong Hopppy Rides Again," produced and directed by Gus "Hitchcock" Edge Jr. They say it's the most spectacular movie filmed for the year. The latest book by the prominent author, Edwina Bell is selling like hotcakes all over the country. This book, "The Life of Lathem" is predicted to become famous down through history. Bonnie Wheeler, driver for Walton Gilliland's Trucking Company, was rushed to the hospital in one of Paul Weatherby's ambulances when she fainted after running over a chicken. Doctor Cowart (Kenneth, that is,) administered first aid with the assistance of his nurse Beth Cooksey.
	Eugene Dobson, city dog catcher, was fast on the run after "Maxie," Jane Hawkins' pet Pekinese. Eugene boasts of having the first dog pound ever located in Canton. Barbara Young world famous concert pianist, has just returned from a trip abroad. While there she had the fortune to meet her old school mate, N. J. Wilbanks, who now holds the honorable position of U. S. Ambassador to Ethiopia. Although Nina Gaddis married her old school flame, she's also managed to hold down a job as editor of her own paper, "The Lathemtown Mule." Hubbard Hardin is the wealthy co-owner of Dean Roper's balloon factory where J. D. Edmondson and David Harris are employed as salesmen. Gerald Hosea, the great farmer is now raising prize potatoes in Sonny Reeves' hot-house. Juanita Henderson is a successful model in Betty Bailey's Charm School in New York. Peggy Perkins, Joyce Sears, and Martha Cloud are also enrolled in Miss Bailey's school.

Hanging in New York's art gallery is a portrait of the famous Broadway star, Barbara Burrell. Susan Garlington was the artist who painted Barbara's portrait. It has been said Miss Burrell is the second Sarah Burnhardt. A world famous little boy's choir has been organized by Bobby Owen, one time member of a Canton High quartet. Although slightly over age, Billy Pruitt is the leading tenor in the choir. Forrest Sawyer, the outstansing lawyer, is busy with a law suit for his wealthiest client Billie Price, the Wall Street broker. ' Billie Howell's beauty parlor is quite a success now. She has such customers as Winnelle Timms, champion basketball star Annie Rose Chambers, secretary to the Pres ident, and Martha Boling, who founded the famed "Boling's Reducing Clinic." Annie Ruth Bowers and her co-pilot, Hattie Mason, have just set a world's record by flying around the world in 24 hours. Her colossal jet plane "The Dipsy-Doodle" was designed and built by Johnie w:ade and Ran- dal Whitmore. Doris Haley just blew the fuse in Bill's Time Machine, so until he fixes it, we'll have to say farewell to the future of the '49 seniors.

	The floor in the bed has been replaced with pressure treated wood. It is rotten. We replaced it with a poplar floor. The wagon appears to be an Owensboro grain wagon. They were incorporated in 1884 and quit making the grain wagon around 1900. So chances are the wagon was built in that time frame and shipped by rail to Canton.

Photos of old mill in woodstock taken by SJ in 2013 Originally known as Little River Mills, the Dorn Rope Mills, the Cherokee Cotton Mills, and the Woodstock Cotton Mills. Located near Woodstock, the Little River grist-mill was in operation as early as the late 1830s and took full advantage of the rock falls of the wwaters for which it was named. It was originally owned by the Joel Haley family, but in the 1880s it was sold to James A. Atherton. It was inherited by his daughter and her husband, Elias Fincher. They sold it to J. S. Dorn, who enlarged and repaired it over time. Following that, it was bought by Georgia Power who leased it to Joe E. Johnston and Smith L. Johnston. They operated it until it was bought by the government in 1948. It was mostly removed in 1952.			Third Floor Storage

Gazaway was my grandmother emma's father. We all called him Papa Taylor or just Papa. This picture appears to have been taken at his party in April of 1950, the year before he died. Papa was born April 7, 1858 and died July 13 1951 at 93 years of age. He married Ida Louvinia Tippens. She was born October 28, 1870 and died July 1, 1948. Papa and Mama were married December 26, 1886. She would have been sixteen and he was twenty eight. I am trying to list all of the names of the poeple in this picture but there are a few unknown and a few that cannot be seen.

Father regularly walked the thousand acre woods
 A lot of the land in thousand acre woods was bought by the paper company then by Allatoona lake
 Grancy Greybeard plant - father found a sprout in the Thousand Acre Woods for her sister - sister gave her a sprout from that one - still has it in her yard to this day
 Starting in the 7th grade she went to Woodstock Elementary - she walked to school
 After 9th grade she walked into Woodstock to catch the bus into Canton for Cherokee High School
 Roller skate on the one paved street down to Bullock's barn from Down town Woodstock
 Mother was born in 1900 - never thought she would fly in a plane as a child
 Father passed in the round hospital in Woodstock after a heart attack
 Father was a deacon in the church - Prayed to help him quit smoking
 Met her husband when her family moved to Mill Street - they were both in the 7th grade at Woodstock Elementary - even though he was 3 years older than her
 Her husband had the first open heart surgery of anyone in this area at Emory
 He passed away at 66 from health problems resulting partially from the plastic valve used in his surgery
 Lived in a little brown house off Mill Street - moved in in 1952 right before first child was born - daughter
 When they were expecting their third child they bought the property next door tore down their existing house and built a brick house to replace it
 Mill St. still dirt road going to Etowah High School
 Tension between southern part of the county and the middle/northern part of the county
 After 575 built, agreed on an interchange at towne lake parkway which was mill st. at the time. People who built towne lake paved the road/
 Husband thought he would be a farmer. Left school after the 8th grade. Also had rheumatic fever. Worked in a bakery in Atlanta then came back to Woodstock and got a job at a service station before working at Lockheed.
 Lockheed took place of Bell Aircraft. Bell Aircraft during WWII built the C130 aircraft. After the war people got laid off and Lockheed came to purchase the building and build aircrafts again
 Husband went to work at Lockheed in 1952 when one of their daughters was born

In 1965 he started own insulation company after seeing people insulate the brown house
 Son took over the business in the 80s, Woodstock insulation. Now run by the grandsons and located in Holly Springs. Used to be located where the golf course is by Lowe's in Woodstock
 Brick house was where the land was purchased for the 575 interchange
 Husband passed in 1993
 Mary Lou Reece had accident on Towne Lake Pkwy under 575. Police brought her to Kennistone. Girl who hit her said she had a green light and police told her she had to have a green arrow to turn. After they installed yellow arrows for caution.
 Truck was 1990 and didn't have shoulder strap seat belts or airbags
 Had severe headache around Thanksgiving and went to Kennistone for MRI. Turned out to be an aneurysm
 Worked at the Bank of Woodstock which was on the corner of where Towne Lake Pkwy meets Main St. Now it's Sampson's antiques. Later moved down Main St. into the owner's home. Sold his home and then built a new bank. Now it's Bank of the Ozarks. Eventually bought out by what is now Suntrust.
 Baker Funeral Home - Woodstock - Brother managed it after he was a truck driver
 Woodstock Funeral Home run by the Reece Family
 Farm on Trickum Road close to 150 acres. Government came through buying property along Little River that was low and family made enough to pay mortgage. Passed in 1951 in tractor accident at either 51 or 52. Had chickens, corn and wheat. Had sharecroppers
 Mother got a job with Whole (Hole???) Proof Hosiery - factory was in Marietta
 Sold little brown house when husband was 50 and used the money to pay off the mortgage of the brick house
 Road train from Woodstock to Jasper when they had to go to the dentist as a kid. Greyhound bus system was in place and had to ride it when going to work in Atlanta after graduating high school. Passed out once when a black man was smoking a cigar on the bus. Bus driver pulled bus over to reprimand the man. She states he was reprimanded because he was smoking cigar on the bus and not because he was black.
 Father was a deacon at Carmel Baptist Church. He is buried at Bascomb where his mother and father were buried
 Mother had a boy after ML Reece who died 3 weeks after birth. Also buried at Bascomb Husband buried at Cherokee Memorial Garden in a crypt. She bought the last 8 that were together for the entire family to be

Topics Discussed:
 Parents were born in Cherokee County near where Lake Alatoona is
 He was born in 1943 in old Marietta Hospital
 Family moved to Woodstock in 1942
 Went to Woodstock Elementary and then Cherokee High. Walked to school House was where Century Tavern currently is Caught the bus to high school, but had to walk to town first. Bus route went along East Cherokee Dr and Tricum Rd. What was Alabama Rd is now Hwy 92
 Took about 45 minutes to get to school at Cherokee from Woodstock
 Didn't go to college
 Friend, Roy Freeman, managed Johnny Walker in Marietta, and he went to work there for 6 months in 1962. January to July. In August got a job at Lockheed. Retired from there in 2009 on December 31. Lots of Woodstock people worked at Lockheed
 Married Diane Westbrook who lived in Crabapple, 1965. First child born in 1970. Second child born in 1976. Both kids went to Woodstock Elementary. Son went to E.T. Booth Middle and then Etowah high. Daughter went to Little River school and then Sequoyah High. First in the four year class. Lived on Tricum Rd. at the time. Before Woodstock High. Cherokee, Etowah and Sequoyah were only high schools in the area.
 Sister, Pat Hubbard Pope, was graduate class of the first year at Cherokee High in 1957.
 Howland Poor grocery store was on Main St. and Church St. Theater near there, but burned down in early 1950s in February. After had to go to Canton if anyone wanted to see the movies. Not much else to do.
 Boys would go play baseball behind Woodstock elementary. Woodstock didn't have much other than farm.
 When they could drive they would go to Marietta to the drive-in. Said Canton resented Woodstock because they would go to Marietta over Woodstock because more to do.
 Typical for people in Woodstock to go to hospital in Kennesaw and not Canton
 Sister born at Marietta Hospital in 1939
 Cherokee Mills - father ran the gin and mother ran the dry goods store. After they moved to Woodstock

Article	Article contents: Thank you for your sacrifice! You have never been forgotten. 100 years ago today, my Great Uncle, Private Fred C. Hopkins, US Army, of Holly Springs, Georgia died in France of pneumonia. The following research I put online at his Findagrave Memorial. https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/10610705/hop Born 13 DEC 1895 in Four Mile community which borders the Cherokee and Pickens county lines. Fred had recently joined the Hickory Flat Masonic Lodge, No 205. An article in 'The Cherokee Advance' described him as 'a young man of genial disposition' and that he had 'always seemed to have the highest regard for the principles and tenants of the order' (Masonic Order). (Source: The Cherokee Advance, 22 NOV 1918) He enlisted in Cherokee County, Georgia in the US Army on 29 MAY 1918, Service #3486698. (Source: Georgia, World War I Service Cards) He served with the 72nd Co 6 Repl Regt at Camp Gordon, Georgia. He departed Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on 27 JUL 1918 on the British steam merchant Agapenor and served overseas with Company "D", 163rd Infantry, 1st Division until his death in France. The Agapenor would later be sunk by U-87 in World War II. Letter from a Chaplain, LT Frank Gosnell, 24th Engineers, American Expeditionary Force (AEF) stated 'he became ill and was at once removed to the hospital Thursday, August 22nd. Here it was ascertained he had pneumonia. Every attention was given him and he seemed to improve steadily until Wednesday evening (04 SEP) when a sudden change took place and despite every medical attention, he passed peacefully away at 2:45 Thursday morning.' (Source: Letter to his mother, Sarah Malinda Tatum Hopkins, dated 09 SEP 1918) He was temporarily interred with thousands of other Americans in

	graves throughout France. His temporary burial took place on 05 SEP 1918 in G-sur-tille, France in American Cemetery #58, Grave #15, Map # D-24, APO 712. Upon conclusion of the war, his body left Bordeaux, France on 29 NOV 1920 aboard the US Army Transport (USAT) Wheaton, which served as an Army Transport Funeral Ship repatriating thousands of Americans back to their loved ones in the United States. His body returned to Hoboken, New Jersey on 01 DEC 1920, and was interred at Mt Zion Cemetery, Hickory Flat, Georgia on 02 JAN 1921. (Source: Western Union document dated 16 DEC 1920; newspaper clipping from his sister Grace; US Army Transport Service Passenger List) The following excerpt was taken off of a newspaper clipping that Grace Hopkins, his sister, had saved: "Private, entered service in May 1918. Was Attached to Company "D", 163rd Infantry, 1st Division, Camp Gordon, GA. Embarked for oversea service in July 1918. While on his way to the front, Private HOPKINS contracted pneumonia, and was transferred to a hospital in France, where he died, Sept 5th 1918. A sad fact is that a postcard from my grandmother, Velma Hopkins, was sent to him on 10 SEP 2018, and was returned stamped 'Deceased' and 'Verified'. This was the first news of his death that the family had received, with the official notification being received via telegram two days later. Hard to believe the postal service used to be this fast! When I was a kid, all of Fred's personal affects were kept in a trunk. It truly was a time capsule, with letters to/from Fred, telegrams, letters from the military, and pictures of Fred. They were a reminder of a live not fully realized. Word Document the above text was copied from attached in Media
P 2019.7.1	Oral history with Majorie Hubbard at age 100.			Third Floor Storage
Electronic Image	Jan 19, 2017 Interviewed, recorded and edited by Sarah Hill Rough Transcript Marjorie tells where she went to school beginning in Marietta: Elizabeth Elementary in Marietta, Marietta High, Reinhardt and Oglethorpe.

Met Glenn - "He was at Reinhardt one year but didn't know him well".. Later we worked at the same school: He was the principal.

Glenn worked at Bell during the war.

They married at the Booth house.

"Mr. Hubbard always kept a car and had Glenn driving it when he had to look through the steering wheel. Mr Hubbard never drove the car. "

Marjorie nodded her head that she was an only child...."Most of the kids I played with were the only one in the family." Kids she played with included Catherine Jones (Malone)... Roberts kids,

"This is the only house Elaine ever lived in" (except when she studied in Delaware)

Glenn's Bee hives - "He was very interested in it. Mr. Williams got interested in it. They would go get swarms of bees. They didn't sell much honey - gave most of it away."

While attending Reinhardt, Marjorie and others lived with Waleska residents. The dormitory was not big enough for all.

Bill Hasty lived out from Waleska. They stayed at home.
Some (students) from Ball Ground lived in town.

Sara Francis Ramsay and Alice Dean were big friends.

Businesses in Woodstock
When Marjorie moved to Woodstock
Dawson Store
Johnston Store - groceries and dry goods

Postmaster
Hugh Lee Johnston
Mail came by train
People would go to get the news...go to the post office and talk while they were putting the mail in the boxes

"Not always a Drugstore until Don Keenum opened."

Black Community
Magnolia Thomas - teacher and seemed like she was principal

Phone rings.
 "Two lines here. One day Glenn wanted the phone...Elaine was on the phone for an hour or more. Glenn called the telephone company to come put her in a phone."

"We had a house on the Rope Mill Road. We had a lot. We sold when they began to build over here. After the Williams' built. Arthur Lee Poor had bought this."

Hank and Lee Etta - They built that house down there.

Wheeler had a store...and a lot of them had a gas tank there.

"We sold the Rope Mill property and started building here. We lived in an apartment down by the funeral home until we got this built ...with Ralph and Lecrecia Carpenter. His brother was a pitcher, I believe, for some ball team."

Karen was born there, I guess."

"They built down Mill street near the Reece's, Freeman and her folks."

Claude Barnes told that some of the Barnes family was walking down town when they were building Hedgewood and that little boy, under school age, just looked up and said, "Woodstock will never be the same..."

Regarding church: "Glenn stayed over at Bascomb (Church). I went to the Baptist church with Elaine..her other friends went there."

Ruby Lee taught music. James and Glenn were big buddies at school.

Mr. Hubbard still lived on the farm and rented out some land. A family raised sweet potatoes. Mr. ET Booth called Homer (Hubbard) "Tater"

Claude Barnes told the story of Joe Johnston telling about carrying a hoe and walking up Rope Mill Road to chop cotton or work in the corn field...and Mr. Booth looked at him and said, "Joe, you've told that story enough till you believe it.."
