The Annual Fountain Festival of Fine Arts & Crafts shows are truly the meeting place of talented artists and highly skilled artisans from across the country and around the world. You can see work from artists who have come together to represent global diversity. From the United States to Europe. From Africa to Asia. From South America to Australia. Art speaks a universal language. And you're certain to understand that language as it is spoken in Fountain Hills.

The Annual Fountain Festival of Fine Arts & Crafts is now in its 50th year.

The Fountain Festival is three days of nearly 450 artists and craftsmen exhibiting work in every medium. The very magnitude of this much talent in one place is overwhelming. The variety of great art in different media is staggering. The Fountain Festival has gained status as one the favorite shows for artists in this region. It's an art show based on quality. On innovation. On pushing the envelope. On reaching new heights and ideas. On experimental mediums. On a vision by visionaries. Most importantly a true community festival.

This is not an exhibition designed solely for seasoned collectors. There's sure to be something that will move you. Art that will appeal to your individual taste. Make you stop. Make you think. And crafts that will bring varied price points for every buyer. The Fountain Festival of Fine Arts & Crafts isn't merely an art show. It's truly a sensory experience.

We ask as a consideration of others, to please leave your pets at home for everyone's safety and enjoyment during the fair!
