

Super Bowl Trivia 2025

The Super Bowl ball is crafted by hand in the USA

Craftsmen and craftswomen complete each step by hand with the aid of machines at the Wilson Football Factory, located in Ada, Ohio, according to the company.

- The words Commissioner, Wilson and Made in the U.S.A. have been imprinted on every single Wilson Super Bowl football since day one,
- Each team playing in the Super Bowl gets 108 footballs, according to Kristina Peterson-Lohman, former director of communications for Wilson Sporting Goods. Of those, 54 are for practice, and 54 are for the actual game. And here's another fun Super Bowl fact: Typically, 120 balls are used during the actual game. The additional ones are kicker footballs, used for all kicking plays.
- Super Bowl perks. "Family and friends enjoy the weekend with hotel stays, luxury vehicle loans and exclusive events. As a perk, every player in the big game gets a loaner car to drive around the host city in the week leading up to Super Sunday
- Attending the big game is expensive. For 2024, the cheapest face-value tickets sold by the NFL were about $2,000. Wow
- Tickets for the very first Super Bowl in 1967 cost an average of $6, which was apparently too pricey for many. According to Brisa Trincherro, founder of the former ticket-sales site ShooWin.com, there were 30,000 empty seats!
- In 2021, the ticket to the event started at $5,950.
- The Super Bowl wasn't actually referred to as the Super Bowl until Super Bowl III," shares Trincherro. "At the time, what we now know as Super Bowl I and II were just called the AFL-NFL World Championship Game."

The football on top of the Lombardi Trophy is the exact size of an official "The Duke" football, which is 55 cm through the middle and 71 cm around the ends, according to Peterson-Lohman. That's one big trophy!

Tiffany & Co. are the manufacturers of the Lombardi trophies; the company's first vice president Oscar Riedner drew the versions of the trophy on a napkin during a meeting with the NFL.

Each Super Bowl gets its own unique coin crafted by the Highland Mint. The front of the coin features the Lombardi Trophy and the helmets of the two teams playing. Superfans can purchase a replica coin after the game.

Sarah Thomas became the first woman to officiate the Super Bowl in 2021. Throughout her career, Thomas officiated NFL preseason games, worked in professional training camps and attended several officiating clinics.

- The New England Patriots are in the lead with 11 Super Bowl appearances—in 2018, 2017, 2016, 2014, 2011, 2007, 2004, 2003, 2001, 1996 and 1985. The Pittsburgh Steelers and Cowboys are second, having appeared eight times.
- As of 2025, there have been eight Super Bowl rematches! We've seen the Cowboys and Steelers, Giants and Patriots, 49ers and Bengals, Cowboys and Bills, Rams and Patriots, Eagles and Patriots, Bills and Cowboys, and Dolphins and Washington face off more than once throughout Super Bowl history.

The Super Bowl winners get $83,000 each, and the losers get $42,000 each.

- Super Bowl Rings. No two Super Bowl rings have the same design.
- The NFL gives the winning team and its owner the freedom to design their Super Bowl ring under the condition that it has the Super Bowl Logo. Each winning team designs and personalizes it to make it unique.
- Super Bowl rings were created mainly using gold and diamonds. But in 2010, the Packers team crafted their rings using platinum.
- The lowest scoring win in the Super Bowl game is in 2019. The game where the New England Patriots won against the Los Angeles Rams 13:3.
- In 1990 San Francisco 49ers won the Super Bowl game against the Denver Broncos 55-10. This is the most significant margin victory recorded in the Super Bowl.
- There has never been a Super Bowl postponed, delayed, or cancelled. Even with the Covid-19 Pandemic, the Super Bowl was played.
- For some reason, no sitting American president has attended the Super Bowl. But they all ensure that they watch the game.
- The Denver Broncos and the New England Patriots have lost the most Super Bowl games. Both these teams have lost five games.
- Peyton Manning is the only NFL player quarterback who has won two Super Bowl Championships using two different teams.
- The Denver Broncos and the New England Patriots have lost the most Super Bowl games. Both these teams have lost five games.
- Peyton Manning is the only NFL player quarterback who has won two Super Bowl Championships using two different teams.

For the complete article go to: 60 Interesting Facts About Super Bowl - The Fact File