

List of Popular Websites Dedicated to Seniors

As compiled by seniorliving.org

Jeff Hoyt, Editor in Chief

Updated October 18, 2022

Disclaimer: Although each of the following sites was verified to be an active link, MaricopaSeniorLiving.org does not necessarily endorse or recommend specifically any of these websites for your use. Use these websites at your own discretion. NOTE: This is a partial list of the websites cited in the original seniorliving.org article.

Aging –

- AARP: www.aarp.org
- Love to Know Seniors: www.lovetoknow.com/life/aging
- Assisted Living Directory: www.assisted-living-directory.com

Travel –

- Road Scholar: www.roadscholar.org

Technology –

- Age in Place Technology Watch: www.ageinplacetech.com

Humor –

- Suddenly Senior: www.suddenlysenior.com

Health –

- Web MD: www.webmd.com
- The Mayo Clinic: www.mayoclinic.com
- National Institute on Aging: www.nia.nih.gov
- Medicare: www.medicare.gov

Jobs –

An article from AARP regarding websites designed to help older workers find jobs: If you're looking for a job, you may already know about the popular employment websites such as Indeed, Monster, and ZipRecruiter. But in addition to those options for all age groups, there are several websites designed specifically to help people age 50 and older find positions.

Link to this 2023 article: Websites That Help Older Workers Find Jobs \(aarp.org\)

Several of the sites listed in the article include:

- Retired Brains: www.retiredbrains.com
- Work Force 50: www.workforce50.com

Check the article for the other sites recommended by AARP.

Dating –

- Senior Match: www.seniormatch.com

Discount Sites –

- Groupon: www.groupon.com