

1 The children always have to do what the adults say. If they disobey they will be beaten.	2 The husband does not allow the wife to go out to meet friends.	3 The son aged 17 is not allowed to have a girlfriend.
4 The son (16) expresses doubt about his religious beliefs, and no longer wants to join the congregation. The parents are sad because of this and talk with him about it. He does not have to go.	5 The family has heard that their son aged 15 has friends who drink alcohol. The parents talk with him, saying that children under 18 should not drink alcohol. The parents pay more attention to their son's social life.	6 Parents with a minority background have planned that their daughter (20) is to marry a cousin from their country of origin. The daughter does not want this. Six months have passed, the mother is crying every day and telling her daughter that her life will be ruined if this marriage does not take place.
7 The mother does not like that her daughter is wearing lipstick and tells her so.	8 Congregation elders say that being homosexual is a grave sin.	9 The daughter (17) is not allowed to have a boyfriend.
10 The daughter (9) is not permitted to have swimming lessons in school if there are boys in her class.	11 The mother checks her daughter's mobile phone on the sly.	12 The family is concerned about their son (17) who is hanging out with a criminal crowd and using drugs. When the family goes to their native country on holiday, the son is left with relatives against his will.
13 The daughter (16) is not allowed to decide the clothes she wants to wear. She is not allowed to use makeup.	14 The mother always brings and picks up her child (10) on visits to friends.	15 The father has heard that the daughter (15) has been seen with boys. The daughter says that they are her friends and that they are nice. The father explains that she must be careful and not have sexual contact. If she gets pregnant life can be difficult.
16 The daughter (17) does not want to wear a hijab, but her parents force her to wear it. She is not allowed to have a boyfriend. The daughter always takes the hijab off on her way to school and has a boyfriend without her parents knowing.	17 The husband will hit his wife if she does something he doesn't like.	18 The parents demand that the brother (17) must always pick up his sister (15) from school and accompany her home.
19 The daughter (17) has been invited to a party. The parents allow her to go, but she must be home by midnight.	20 The father has heard rumours that his son (17) is gay. Homosexuality is not accepted in his environment. The father tells the son that he could never live in the same house as a homosexual.	21 The parents have decided that their daughter must undergo genital mutilation.