1. About us

Destination NSW is the lead agency, champion and voice for the visitor economy within the NSW Government. Spearheading a whole-of-government approach to visitor economy growth, Destination NSW is responsible for leading the delivery of the NSW Visitor Economy Strategy 2030 in partnership with government and industry. Destination NSW influences and shapes the visitor economy through strategic research, policy and thought leadership, stakeholder engagement and consultation, commercial partnerships and investment in visitor experiences, business support, marketing and events. Destination NSW is also the major investor in Business Events Sydney (BESydney) for the purpose of securing more international and domestic conventions, incentive travel reward programs, corporate events and exhibitions for Sydney and Regional NSW.

Destination NSW commenced operations on 1 July 2011 and was established pursuant to the Destination NSW Act 2011 in June 2011.

Destination NSW is charged with achieving economic and social benefits for the people of NSW through the development of tourism and the securing of major events and business events. Although Destination NSW is funded by the New South Wales Government it has been established with the intent to act commercially.

Destination NSW brought together Events New South Wales Pty Limited, Tourism NSW and Homebush Motor Racing Authority in 2011.

Destination NSW is part of the Department of Enterprise, Investment and Trade cluster. Destination NSW is a separate body corporate. Access to the Department of Enterprise, Investment and Trade's Agency Information Guide is available at <https://www.nsw.gov.au/enterprise-investment-trade/policy/access-to-information/how-to-access-information>

Our Vision

For NSW to be the premier visitor economy in the Asia Pacific by 2030.

Our Mission

To deliver economic and social benefits to the people of NSW by growing the visitor economy.

Our Strategic Pillars

1. Road to recovery
2. Build the brand
3. Showcase our strengths
4. Invest in world-class events
5. Facilitate growth

Structure

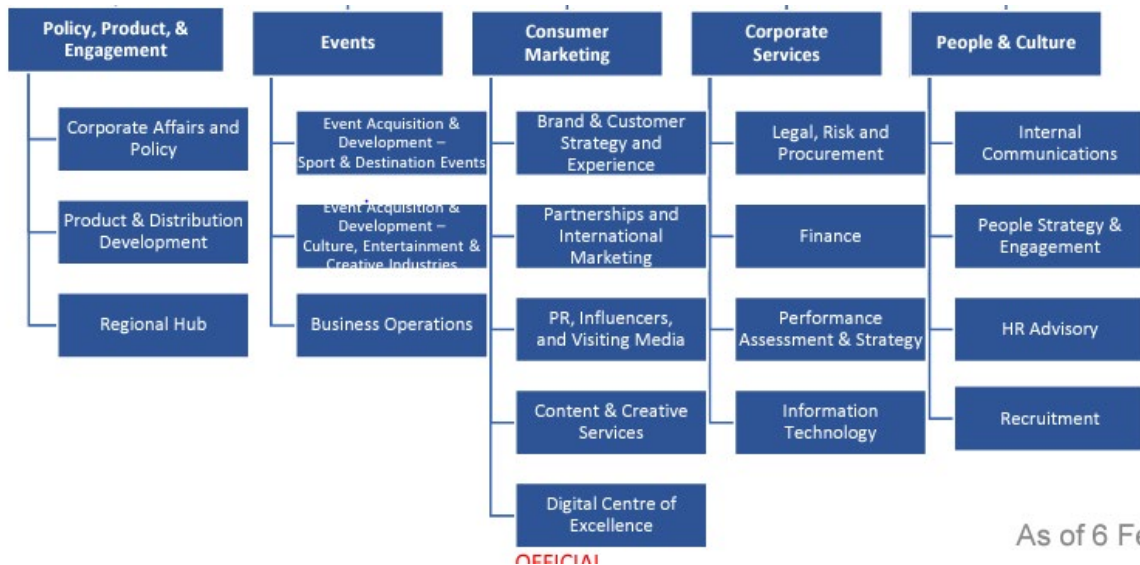

Destination NSW is led by the Chief Executive Officer Steve Cox. Steve's profile is available on the Destination NSW website here.

The objectives and roles of each core area of activity are outlined in our structure.

Destination NSW has the following divisions:

1. Consumer Marketing
2. Corporate Services/Finance
3. Product, Policy and Engagement
4. Events
5. People and Culture

Divisional Org Chat

Events Objectives and Roles:

- Identify, attract and nurture events which provide significant economic, marketing and/or community benefits to Sydney and NSW
- Promote and develop a NSW Events Calendar of cultural, sporting, lifestyle, entertainment, regional and business events which bring year-round benefits
- Leverage off these events to maximise the overall economic, marketing and community benefits
- Endorse a strong regional focus to ensure economic, marketing and community benefits are shared throughout NSW
- Encourage investment, infrastructure development and other activities so Sydney and NSW can continue to be a leading host of major global events
- Work co-operatively with the Government and the private sector to achieve the above

Events has developed an event checklist that reflects our strategic objectives and forms the basis of Destination NSW – Events consideration for potential support of events. The event checklist is available on our website.

Tourism Objectives and Roles:

Tourism promotes and supports the development of sustainable tourist destinations and experiences. This is done by:

- Marketing NSW destinations and holiday experiences to domestic and international markets
- Working with and providing advice to industry, other Government agencies and key stakeholders about the development of sustainable destinations
- Developing private and public sector partnerships to grow and manage tourism

- Working closely with industry and precincts on the promotion and development of Sydney and Regional NSW as compelling tourism destination's both domestically and internationally
- Working closely with regional products and destinations throughout NSW on tourism promotion and development activities, including partnership marketing campaigns and working with Regional Tourism Organisations on annual funding programs
- Assistance with Destination Networks
- Regional NSW Conferencing unit
- Developing and managing the global consumer leisure marketing strategy for Sydney and NSW. This includes advertising, destination PR, digital marketing, brand marketing and content services.

Consent Authority Objectives and Roles:

Destination NSW's divisional responsibilities include the functions formerly carried out by Tourism NSW, Events NSW and the Homebush Motor Racing Authority.

Board of Management

Destination NSW is governed by an independent Chair and a Board of Management.

The Board has an independent Chair and includes the Chief Executive Officer of Destination NSW; and industry representatives with relevant skills and experience in tourism and events.

The responsible Minister can appoint the Board of Management and remove members.

The CEO manages and controls the agency's affairs as directed in accordance with the Board's approval, policies and directives.

The Minister directs Destination NSW in accordance with the Destination NSW Act 2011 and the NSW Government is represented on the Board by the Cluster Secretary.

Board member details can be viewed on our website.

6. How Destination NSW engages with the public

Engagement in Destination NSW's functions

Destination NSW invites submissions and feedback from the public, stakeholders, community organisations and government agencies on the exercise of its functions at any time. Please submit via email - info@dnsw.com.au.

Destination NSW may release policies which invite submissions. Policies are released on www.nsw.gov.au or www.destinationnsw.com.au.

Stakeholder engagement and feedback

Destination NSW consults with stakeholders for the purpose of obtaining industry insights and with the aim of improving our services. This includes ongoing engagement with the seven Destination Networks established by the NSW Government in 2016 to improve regional stakeholder engagement and better support the visitor economy of regional NSW.

Destination Networks coordinate destination management and work closely with local government, tourism organisations and operators. They are also responsible for implementing their region's Destination Management Plan. More information is available here: <https://www.destinationnsw.com.au/our-industry/destination-networks>

Destination NSW also has a list of contacts for local associations, Destination Networks and industry networks for stakeholders.

Additionally, Destination NSW invites stakeholders to take advantage of assistance, as outlined on our website - <https://www.destinationnsw.com.au/tourism/industry-opportunities>. Find out how to access free of charge business resources, listings on our websites, product showcases, publicity opportunities and industry research. It also provides details about how to participate in a range of opportunities such as partner marketing campaigns, visitor publications and event marketing as well as media and travel buyer familiarisation tours.

Destination NSW offers a range of opportunities to assist industry in reaching consumers and trade in key markets in NSW, Australia and overseas. Find out how you can work with us to grow the NSW visitor economy (<https://www.destinationnsw.com.au/contact-us>) Regardless of the size of your business or budget, Destination NSW can help you promote your product, service or event.

NSW First Program

Destination NSW delivers the NSW First program to assist tourism businesses around the State to develop, promote and sell their tourism products.

It includes face to face workshops and online webcasts that offer 'how-to' insights on a range of topics for the tourism industry, with events to be added to the calendar throughout the year.

For more information, please visit the NSW First Program web page.

Decision Making

Destination NSW provides information on how it makes decisions.

For events - Destination NSW has developed an event checklist that reflects our strategic objectives and forms the basis of Destination NSW – Events consideration for potential support of events. Event assessment criteria is available on our website.

For goods and services – For procurement where more than one quote is required, Destination NSW issues request for quotations and request for tenders which outline the selection criteria in which proposals will be assessed.

For regional grants – terms and conditions which apply to regional grant funding are detailed on our Regional Tourism Fund page and our Regional Event Fund page.

The outcomes of our decisions and the impact of Destination NSW is detailed in Destination NSW's annual reports. Destination NSW's annual reports are available at www.destinationnsw.com.au/about-us/annual-reports. The impact is economic and social benefits for the people of NSW and the visitor economy.
