Highlights

- With the lockdowns and restrictions imposed in the second half of 2021 and a surge in the Omicron cases throughout January 2022, domestic overnight visitation to NSW continued to be impacted in YE March 2022.
- Domestic overnight visitors to NSW slightly dropped for the YE March 2022. However, with overnight visitors spending more per night in NSW, expenditure was up compared to the YE March 2021.
- Sydney led Australian capital cities in all three metrics in domestic overnight visitation, while regional NSW led regional Australia in visitor numbers.
- Regional NSW experienced falls in domestic overnight visitors and nights for the year, while Sydney recorded an increase in all three metrics mainly due to the Holiday market.
