DAY ONE

GET TO KNOW THE CITY

Kick off your day on a Gray Line Westcoast Sightseeing tour. Complete with commentary, the tour is the best way to see the city with hop-on, hop-off tickets that make it easy to get around to Vancouver's most popular attractions.

We recommend the Stanley Park loop, which offers incredible views of Vancouver's 1,000 acre urban oasis. To see the best of the park, take Cycle City Tours or rent a bike and discover the park yourself. Make sure you stop at the totem poles to learn about the region's Indigenous roots as well as English Bay, a scenic stretch of seawall lined with cute cafes, gelato shops and bars.

Thanks to our temperate climate you can then explore the city on foot. But, if you are looking for another way to explore the city, wander over to Canada Place where you'll find Flyover, a unique 4D flight simulation ride—perfect for a rainy day.

HERITAGE IN HARMONY

In Vancouver, we don't just embrace diversity, we exist because of it. Nowhere is Vancouver's cultural harmony more apparent than your next stop, Chinatown, a historic neighbourhood that's stood for more than a century. You'll get a full understanding of neighbourhood by exploring the Chinatown Storytelling Centre — Canada's first permanent exhibit space dedicated to telling the stories of the Chinese Canadian journey and the living heritage of Vancouver's Chinatown.

Up next, you'll experience A Wok Around Chinatown, where you'll discover specialty shops, markets, and delicious dim sum, plus the iconic Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Garden, which was the first classical garden of its type built outside China when it opened in 1986.

AN EVENING TO REMEMBER

After immersing yourself in the wonders of Chinatown, take a short walk over to Gastown, Vancouver's oldest neighbourhood. Here, you can browse for souvenirs, explore unique boutiques, and enjoy the vibrant nightlife. Wander through the charming cobblestone streets before settling in for dinner at L'Abattoir, PiDiGiN, or St. Lawrence, all celebrated MICHELIN guide restaurants..

HOP-ON HOP-OFF SPOTS

Gray Line's Westcoast Sightseeing tour lets you explore some of Vancouver's most popular attractions, including:

- Canada Place / FlyOver Canada
- Stanley Park Pavilion / Miniature Railroad
- Granville Island
- VanDusen Botanical Gardens
- Queen Elizabeth Park
- Chinatown / Dr. Sun Yat-Sen Classical Chinese Gardens
- Gastown / Maple Tree Square

DAY TWO

THE EARLY BIRD CATCHES THE BEAR

Stretch your mind (and your calf muscles) with an early morning visit to Grouse Mountain. Just a short trip over the iconic Lions Gate Bridge, and you'll swap the city streets for stunning views as you enjoy a spectacular gondola ride to the 1,231m peak of Vancouver.

High above the city, you won't just enjoy nature, you'll experience it. Your morning begins with breakfast, shared with the mountain's resident rescued grizzly bears, Grinder and Coola. Then it's time to strap in and soar above old-growth forests, soaking in the breathtaking views and heart-pounding thrills served up by the mountain's ziplines. If you're planning on coming during the winter, you'll enjoy adventures snowshoeing, skiing, snowboarding, and tubing in fresh powder snow.

A NORTH SHORE AFTERNOON

Enjoy lunch at one of the mountaintop eateries, then take time to enjoy the lumberjack show, the hiking trails, or simply take in the view. When you're ready, head to the nearby Capilano Suspension Bridge Park where you can sway 450ft above the river and step out onto the awe-inspiring CliffWalk.

If you're looking for something a little more metropolitan, head to North Vancouver's Lonsdale Quay for a beautiful ocean front stroll through the charming Lonsdale Quay Market where you can explore fresh, local eats and a fun, vibrant atmosphere. Catch the latest exhibition at the Polygon Art Gallery, which has earned its reputation as one of the most ambitious public art institutions in Canada. Then learn the history of the area at the Museum of North Vancouver before catching the seabus back to downtown Vancouver.

Alternatively, cap off your day with an unforgettable visit to the Vancouver Aquarium, home to over 65,000 aquatic animals and sanctuary to rescued seals, sea lions and otters.

INSIDER TIPS

- The Seabus is a passenger ferry that connects North Vancouver (at Lonsdale Quay) to Downtown Vancouver (Waterfront Station). It holds up to 395 passengers and runs every 15 minutes during the day. The ride across the Burrard Inlet only takes 12 minutes and is a great way to get a view of both sides from the water.

DAY THREE

A UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE

Start your day with a Sea Vancouver tour. These fast and fun zodiac tours offer an adrenaline-pumping ride around the waters that surround the downtown peninsula. Or go on a Vancouver Water Adventure to tour by kayak, paddleboard, boat or seadoo — either with a lesson and a guide or as a rental to set out on the water.

With your feet firmly back on dry land, it's time to explore Granville Island. Formerly industrial land, the island has been transformed into a cultural and culinary hub.

LUNCH BY THE WATER

The much-loved Granville Island Public Market is the perfect spot to stop for lunch. Experience the Vancouver Foodie Tours unique exploration of the market, including a behind the scenes discovery of how the food artisans create. The market features not only great eats, but an array of artisan producers and local vendors.

Alternatively, you could always stroll along the seawall, or catch the charming Aquabus or False Creek Ferry, to the trendy Yaletown neighbourhood for a well-deserved drink at Cioppino's Mediterranean Grill or Per Se Social Corner.
