

Unconventional Thinking in Teaching

Marathon Oil's Grants for Teachers

Application

Teacher/Nominee Information:

First Name:

Last Name:

Email:

Primary Phone Number:

Years Teaching:

Current Grades/Courses Taught:

Years Teaching at Current Institution:

Current School Name:

Current School District:

Current School Address:

Counties Served by Current School:

Principal First Name:

Principal Last Name:

Principal Email:

Nominator Information (if applicable):

Nominator First Name:

Nominator Last Name:

Nominator Email:

Nominator Relationship to Teacher:

Is the nominator or nominee an immediate family member of any government officials? If yes, please specify.

Is the nominator or nominee an immediate family member of a Marathon Oil employee? If yes, please specify.

Application Questions:

At Marathon Oil, Unconventional Thinking means constantly looking for new ways to solve problems and deliver results. Explain how you, or the nominee, demonstrated Unconventional Thinking during the 2020-2021 school year.

At Marathon Oil, we're committed to ensuring inclusive and equitable education for all students. Demonstrate how you, or the nominee, align with this commitment.

Give an example of how you, or the nominee, align with each of Marathon Oil's core values:

- To collaborate as one, inclusive team:
- To take ownership of our own successes and make a difference:
- To be bold by taking informed risks with confidence:
- To deliver results by focusing on activities that deliver enduring value:

Please provide any metrics that quantify your, or the nominee's, impact on student test scores or graduation rates.

In your, or the nominee's, current curriculum, are any topics covered related to the energy industry? If so, please provide details below.

If selected as a winner, how will the grant funds be utilized?

Individual grant awards will likely range between $2,500 and $5,000 and will be determined based on the number of winners and current program budget. Funds should be used to support the purchase of classroom resources, such as books, activity/lab materials, and technology, or personal professional development.

Letter of Recommendation (upload):