

Merchandise Integrity Policy

Burlington Stores, Inc. ("Burlington") is committed to providing quality products for the whole family. Burlington will not tolerate products with profane, obscene, or harassing images, language, or other content. Furthermore, Burlington will not tolerate products with racial, ethnic or religious bigotry or products that advocate extremist political views or exalting the image of a political extremist or terrorist. We want to be proud of the products we sell and any product that violates Burlington's integrity standards will not be sold. Vendors will be charged in accordance with Burlington's product recall chargeback schedule as an expense offset, for the liquidated amount that Burlington may assess, in the event of noncompliance. Examples of content that violate Burlington's integrity standards include, but are not limited to, nudity, drugs, sexual references, violence, and foul or derogatory images and/or language. Please note that this is not an exhaustive list. Questions regarding the Merchandise Integrity Policy should be sent to Product.Eval@burlingtonstores.com including requests for prescreening.
