Loris Olivier

Since the first encounter with interactive design in 2004, Loris has never stopped to feed his curiosity. After studying in the USA, Switzerland and The Netherlands, he experimented with different field of digital design and web development. Whether it's through typography, motion design, 3D modeling, UI and UX design, he always tries to push toward new territory in between current cultural artefacts and representation.

Lisa Huang

Lisa studied graphic design mostly in Paris, before diving into type design with Type@Cooper Condensed program in 2015 in New York City. She graduated from the master program in type design Type and Media in 2018 at the Royal Academy of Art (KABK) in The Hague. Lisa's interest in type and graphic design relies strongly on multi-cultural projects and works, especially mixing Latin / French and Chinese cultures, which mirrors her life as a multi-cultural human being.
