An

Escapist's Paradise

Le Colonial is a celebration of seductive spirit and vivid flavors reminiscent of Saigon in the 1920s. With locations in Chicago, Houston, Atlanta and Lake Forest, the famed Vietnamese restaurant is designed to capture a bygone era of romance and soft architecture.

Heralded as "an escapist's paradise," celebrated restaurateurs Rick Wahlstedt and Joe King deliver on exquisite attention to detail in a luxurious classic and idyllic atmosphere to the buzzing Market Square of Lake Forest.

Le Colonial

OWNERS

Joe King, Owner

Joe King is one of the Chicago area's most prolific restaurateurs, playing a pivotal role in Windy City ventures spanning from nationally acclaimed Japonais by Morimoto, Rockit Bar & Grill and Le Passage nightclub to local favorites like King Café Gourmet and Go. He is also a partner in award-winning East Coast establishments, L'Escale in Greenwich, CT and Artisan in Southport, CT, and co-owns South China Management with Rick Wahlstedt.

A Massachusetts native, King first found his love for the hospitality industry as a teenager working during summer breaks. In 1996, he entered a partnership with Chicago's Le Colonial, where he was intimately involved in all operational, culinary, service and design aspects that have made Le Colonial an institution in Chicago, as well as the big picture of the Le Colonial's legacy.

Rick Wahlstedt, Founder & Owner

A lifelong entrepreneur by way of Sweden, Rick Wahlstedt is the creator and/or partner and driving force behind some of the country's most successful, innovative and acclaimed culinary and hospitality concepts such as Japonais, Le Bilboquet, La Goulue, L'Escale and Artisan.

Wahlstedt's uncanny ability to know what his patrons want is based on a simple principle: he creates sophisticated, inviting and unpretentious venues that he and his friends would enjoy. In 1993, Wahlstedt set out to create something unique in Manhattan debuting the adventure of Le Colonial, the first upscale fine dining Vietnamese restaurant in the country. After 25 years of great success and with Le Colonial thriving in Chicago, Atlanta and Houston, Wahlstedt is spearheading Le Colonial's expansion with five new restaurants during the next two years and establishing joint ventures internationally and licensing opportunities.

LAKE FOREST

Le Colonial Lake Forest opened its doors in July 2022, in a historical two-story structure originally built in 1901 to serve as the community's fire and police station. The free-standing building includes over 12,500 square feet of lavish palm-filled dining and picturesque banquet event space, as well as a large outdoor garden for alfresco dining and lounging by the Parrot bar.

EVENT SPACES

EVENT SPACE CONTENT TABLE

The Lotus Room	7
Le Royal Room	8
Bac Ha Room	9

Note:

THE PRIVATE EVENT SPACES ON THE SECOND FLOOR HAVE BEEN DESIGNED TO WORK INDEPENDENTLY OR IN UNISON, ALLOWING FOR COCKTAILS IN ONE ROOM AND A SEATED DINNER AND DANCING IN THE ELEGANT ADJOINING SPACE.

THE LOTUS ROOM

The Lotus Room is an intimate private dining room that is located past the Main Dining Room, overlooking the terrace and visible through wrought-iron French doors. With seating for up to 12 guests, the room pays homage to the official flower of Vietnam and is anchored by a Jonas Wickman mural rendered in gentle tropical tones, perfect for small corporate dinners or family celebrations.

CAPACITY 2-12 GUESTS

LE ROYAL ROOM

Le Royal Room is our private dining space, located on the second floor, with a capacity up to 60 guests. The beautiful room is great for meetings, standing cocktail parties or rehearsal dinners.

CAPACITY 20-60 GUESTS.

BAC HA ROOM

The "Bac Ha" room, inspired by the iconic Vietnamese Market, features a large outdoor balcony overlooking bustling Market Square, with a dedicated bar. It can host up to 80 guests and has a private entrance on Bank Lane.

The private event spaces on the second floor have been designed to work independently or in unison, allowing for cocktails in one room and a seated dinner and dancing in the elegant adjoining space.

CAPACITY: 30-80 GUESTS

CULINARY TEAM

Hassan Obaye, Executif Chef

A native of Morocco, Chef Hassan Obaye studied at the prestigious Ecole De Cuisine Française in the Southwest of France. Hassan has worked alongside some of the world's best chefs in Michelin-starred restaurants before joining Le Colonial, where he artfully develops unique menus, with a focus on locally and ethically sourced ingredients. Hassan is known for his irresistible play on spices and flavors, as well as delightful and experiential desserts.

Nicole Routhier, Culinary Ambassador

Born in Vietnam to a Vietnamese restaurateur mother and a French father, Nicole is an award-winning cookbook author and sought-after chef instructor, recognized as one of the country's preeminent experts in Vietnamese cuisine. Along with Hassan, Nicole revisits and refines a menu of fine Vietnamese fare she first developed nearly 3 decades ago at the original Le Colonial.

OUR PROMISE

“ We believe the value of a restaurant goes beyond pleasing the palette and is measured based on its positive impact on our local communities

HASSAN OBAYE, NATIONAL EXECUTIF CHEF

At Le Colonial, we carefully source our ingredients from locally owned farms in each of our locations. Through our partnerships, we not only ensure the freshest and highest quality of ingredients to create flavor bursting fare (more nutrients, minimal pesticides, safer food supply) but also support the local communities. Indeed, Le Colonial's culinary mission is to move away from large distributors and focus on supporting local farms and businesses.
