

DHC

DHC is an expression of sonic fierceness — an embodiment of passion and intrinsic queer force that surges through their music. Dominik Humeres Correa channels a deep devotion to dance history and culture, creating connection through undeniable groove and infectious energy that spans the more seductive shades of house, trance, progressive, and beyond.

Together with their sister THC, the duo forms S-candalo — an unstoppable force already commanding iconic spaces like Panorama Bar, Bassiani, Fabric, and Whole Festival with their dynamic presence.

With past and ongoing involvement in Berlin-based collectives and parties such as Venus Vessels and La Noche, DHC continues to expand their network and shape the sound of today's tastemakers. They regularly showcase a more introspective side of their vibrant musical vision through their residency on Refuge Worldwide.

Things are just heating up — with bass in your face, vocal flair, and unmistakable style, DHC is the moment.
