

Clementaum

Hailing from Paraná, Clementaum, aka LA MAYOR, is one of the most electrifying names in Brazil's underground scene, known for her fierce stage presence and unapologetic style. In 2025, Mixmag named her one of the 25 Artists to Watch This Year.

Rooted in fashion and the Ballroom scene — where she holds the title of Overall Princess Harpya — Clementaum turns every dance floor into a high-voltage, inclusive universe.

After winning DJ of the Year at the 2024 WME Awards Powered by Billboard (and a 2023 nod as Music Producer), she lit up Primavera Sound Barcelona, earning a Boiler Room debut and props from WGSN as a festival standout.

Blending Latin electronic rhythms with funk, techno, and tribal sounds, Clementaum's genre-bending sets have led to collabs with Pablo Vittar and Karol Conka. Her 2024 European tour spanned eight countries, iconic clubs, and major festivals like WHOLE and Primavera.

Now in 2025, she's already locked in for Sónar Lisboa, WHOLE Berlin, and Só Track Boa São Paulo — plus new drops like Sounds of Cuzil, her Splice-backed sample pack.
