

DJ Plead

Who said bass-heavy music has to be moody? DJ Plead knows how to bring maximum soundsystem impact with vibrant energy and flair. Sydney-born and now Melbourne-based, Jarred Beeler burst onto the scene with his 2018 debut EP on Air Max '97's DECISIONS label, blending Lebanese rhythms and melodies with precision electronic production.

Co-founder of the SUMAC label alongside LOGIC1000, Cassius Select, and Utility, Plead's distinctive sound—marked by intricate drums and Eastern scales—has gained international attention with releases on Nervous Horizon, AD93, and Livity Sound. His 2020 LP, Relentless Trills (Boomkat's Documenting Sound), showcased his evolving style beyond club confines, deepening his signature fusion of tradition and innovation.

His dynamic DJ sets weave exclusives with diverse sounds—techno, house, broken beat, and dub—making appearances at festivals like Dekmantel and Meakusma and clubs including Fabric and Space Miami. His piquant style balances finesse with power, keeping dancefloors engaged.

Most recently, DJ Plead teamed up with Rroxymore for the Round City EP on Smalltown Supersound, continuing to push his sound into new territory.
