

Join us at Brainstorm School for an exclusive Online 3-Week Summer Art Camp, an immersive evening program designed for aspiring and professional artists seeking to elevate their craft from industry-leading creatives.

Each week, a renowned guest artist will lead a comprehensive 3-hour session focused on their specialized discipline—ranging from concept design and visual storytelling to advanced rendering techniques. This is a rare opportunity to gain firsthand insight into high-level creative processes, and build industry-ready skills in a focused-group environment.

Tuition: $125 – One-time payment includes all three sessions.

Schedule & Guest Artist Line-Up:

- Week 1: Jonathan Kuo (Concept Artist) Hard Surface Mechanics & Prop Design Thursday, May 1st | 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM PST
- Week 2: James Paick (Creative Director & Co-Founder of Brainstorm) Worldbuilding Workshop Thursday, May 8th | 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM PST
- Week 3: John Park (Co-Founder of Brainstorm) Painterly Techniques Thursday, May 15th | 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM PST

Whether you're preparing a portfolio, seeking professional development, or simply wanting to recharge creatively, this camp is structured to provide high-impact learning in a collaborative atmosphere.

Space is limited to maintain a high-quality experience. Early registration is highly encouraged.

Secure your spot and expand your artistic vision—only at Brainstorm School.
