About Miss Hall's School

Founded in 1898 — one of the first girls' boarding schools in Massachusetts — Miss Hall's School is recognized internationally for its experiential leadership curriculum, service and internship programs, and inclusive global community. Miss Hall's is committed to its mission of inspiring and encouraging each girl to pursue the highest standards of learning and character; to contribute boldly and creatively to the common good; and to seek a purposeful life based on honor, respect, growth, and personal authenticity.

Guided by this mission and sharpened by daily practice, Miss Hall's continuously reimagines girl-centered education to foster a pioneering intellectual spirit and authentic engagement among students and adults. Located in the Berkshires, the School currently enrolls 180 girls in grades 9-12, with students from 24 countries living and learning together as global citizens.

The School's signature experiential learning program, Horizons, has been central to the Miss Hall's curriculum for more than 25 years. Every student participates in weekly Horizons internships, mentoring, and community learning, experiences that empower MHS graduates to step confidently into the world as collaborators, leaders of change, and bold and creative contributors to the common good.

The Miss Hall's Mission and Strategic Design

Miss Hall's School inspires and encourages each girl to pursue the highest standards of learning and character; to contribute boldly and creatively to the common good; and to seek a purposeful life based on honor, respect, growth, and personal authenticity. Adopted in 2016, the Miss Hall's Strategic Design is an ambitious blueprint that sets the bar high for the community. The plan centers the MHS student experience and lays out the School's four areas of priority:

- Innovative programs that emphasize intellectual pursuit, development of core competencies, and personalized, experiential learning tailored to girls
- Inclusive community that values diversity as essential to learning and problem solving, as a means to discovery and personal growth, and as a context for cultivating empathy and cultural competency
- Commitment to engagement, service, and leadership that strengthens connections between the School and local and global communities and provides opportunities for students to discover passions and have influence
- Culture of adaptability, collaboration, and excellence that enables the School to address challenges, maximize opportunities for growth, and remain nimble in a changing educational landscape

The Miss Hall's Strategic Design is not a plan that sits idly on the shelf. It is very much alive, guiding school leadership and decision making every day.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Miss Hall's

At Miss Hall's School, we champion social justice; insist that all community members demonstrate respect for each other through words and actions; and affirm that diversity, equity, and inclusion are essential to learning and problem solving, discovery and personal growth, and cultivating empathy and cultural competency. Guided by these beliefs, and with the understanding that being an inclusive community requires ongoing work and commitment, we foster cross-cultural dialogue and allyship to honor and celebrate our diverse community.

Miss Hall's works to make sure its community — and the world around it — is equitable, just, and brilliantly diverse. Under the umbrella of our school-wide Diversity Coalition, three essential coalitions are fixtures of student life: Essence, Spectrum, and the International Student Alliance. Adults at MHS engage in ongoing anti-racist education and practice and facilitate community-wide dialogues in response to current events and observances that foster inclusion and courageous conversation.

Miss Hall's School is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to a policy of employment without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, marital or parental status, genetic information or family medical history, military or veteran status or any other classification protected under federal, state, or local law.
