

Photography Teacher Part-Time

Applications Accepted Starting 2/15

Application Review Starting 3/8

Miss Hall's School seeks a part-time Photography Teacher for the 2022-23 school year to teach two sections of Photography I. The Expressive Arts Department is committed to diversifying its staff and expanding its offerings, based on the expertise of a globally oriented educator with strong teaching credentials. We are especially interested in candidates who have experience in the field of photography and who can integrate artistic process into the course curriculum. Candidates should be ready to teach Photography I, including darkroom and digital techniques, and be prepared to develop distinctive coursework for all grade levels, inspired by the applicant's interests and experiences. We desire a collaborative, inspiring, and innovative teacher who advocates for the students and mission of MHS.

Miss Hall's School inspires and encourages each girl to pursue the highest standards of learning and character; to contribute boldly and creatively to the common good; and to seek a purposeful life based on honor, respect, growth, and personal authenticity.

At Miss Hall's School, we champion social justice; insist that all community members demonstrate respect for each other through words and actions; and affirm that diversity, equity, and inclusion are essential to learning and problem solving, discovery and personal growth, and cultivating empathy and cultural competency. Guided by these beliefs, and with the understanding that being an inclusive community requires ongoing work and commitment, we foster cross cultural dialogue and allyship to honor and celebrate our diverse community.
