

Director of Athletics and Auxiliary Programming

Miss Hall's School inspires and encourages each girl to pursue the highest standards of learning and character; to contribute boldly and creatively to the common good; and to seek a purposeful life based on honor, respect, growth, and personal authenticity.

At Miss Hall's School, we champion social justice; insist that all community members demonstrate respect for each other through words and actions; and affirm that diversity, equity, and inclusion are essential to learning and problem solving, discovery and personal growth, and cultivating empathy and cultural competency. Guided by these beliefs, and with the understanding that being an inclusive community requires ongoing work and commitment, we foster cross-cultural dialogue and allyship to honor and celebrate our diverse community.

Position Overview

Miss Hall's School seeks a full-time/ year-round Director of Athletics and Auxiliary Programming who will inspire and lead the Athletics Department toward mission-consistent innovative practices, and who will envision, design and coordinate all auxiliary programming on campus. Candidates should have a minimum of a Bachelor degree and 2 year's experience. The ideal candidate will be passionate about athletics and physical wellness, committed to the teaching, mentoring, and coaching of young women, and possess a visionary and entrepreneurial spirit in creating programs that align with the goals of the School. The candidate will demonstrate a commitment to cultivating positive relationships across our diverse student body, and will collaborate with members of the Wellness Center to deliver health, fitness, and wellness curricula.

Experience in a school setting strongly preferred along with a demonstrated commitment to equity and inclusion and experience serving a diverse/global community required.