Dear Students,

We have had a very busy first week of Term 4. We will be sending out Term 3 grades and comments by the end of the week. Please review, especially the comments, with your advisor. This feedback can be very encouraging and helpful in setting goals for yourself.

Shout out to some amazing programs that took place last week!

- Much gratitude to Dr. for last Wednesday's Part 1 of the discussion on the History of Israel hosted by DivCo. You can check it out by clicking here for the recording.
- Congrats to Crypted001 heads, Fernanda Morais Laroca '23, Kathleen Nguyen '22, Phuong Tran '22, and advisor Dr. Chris Himes for organizing Miss Hall's first HACK-A-THON!
- For those who returned to campus this week, thank you for your attention to the MHS Common Good Guidelines. This coming week we continue to remain in campus condition YELLOW. Should you have questions about the guidelines or current campus conditions, please reach out to one of us.

During advisor meetings this week you will be asked to complete Peer Evaluations for School President and Vice President, Hannah and Chelsea. Thanks for your help in giving our student leaders constructive feedback!

Tomorrow, February 1st kicks off the start of Black History Month- be on the lookout for Community Meeting presentations, weekend activities, and more in honor of Black excellence historical and contemporary!

This week is Spirit Week- a different theme each day of the week! Attached you will find the sign-up sheet in order to receive Blue/Gold points!
