MARIANNA'S ITALIAN HOAGIE

Hometown Favorite Sandwich

Thank You to our awesome fans who took the time to vote in the 2021 The Altoona Mirror Hometown Favorites Contest.

Marianna's Fundraisers Italian Hoagie was voted the Hometown Favorite Sandwich.

We also want to thank our great customers who purchase our fundraisers.

And last but not least - Thank You to our dedicated Hoagie Hero Team at Marianna's who work hard every day to provide delicious, fresh products for our fundraising customers.

Penn State Altoona held several activities and events as part of Global Entrepreneurship Week from Nov. 8-12, 2021.

Global Entrepreneurship Week (GEW) brings together students, faculty, staff, and community members to promote the entrepreneurial spirit and cultivate student start-ups.

Amy Mearkle attended on 11/8/21 and was part of the Entrepreneur in Residence activity.

Amy had the pleasure of speaking with 10 Penn State Altoona Students - one being Dominic Tornatore who works for DelGrosso's Park and DG2Go Pizza.

DelGrosso Foods was honored to be part of this year's Farm City Dinner hosted by The Blair County Chamber of Commerce.

CEO Joe DelGrosso and Director of Marketing Amy Mearkle showcased the growth of the DelGrosso Family of Companies and growth opportunities for 2022.

2021 Toys for Tots Avenue of Trees!

The DelGrosso Family of Companies once again sponsored a tree for the annual Toys for Tots Avenue of Trees campaign.

Marketing Coordinator Amie Uliano-Parisi attended the event and decorated the DelGrosso Family of Companies Tree at the Altoona Grand Hotel mid-November.

Trees will be on display throughout the holiday season for visitors to enjoy. One hundred percent of the money raised will help the U.S. Marine Corps purchase toys for children in need from our area.

What steps should you take?

Whether you shop online routinely or infrequently, the risk of identity theft rises as you offer more and more information about yourself online.

Avoid using a debit card, and use only one credit card. If your debit card gets hacked, the thieves may be able to access your bank account. But if you use just one credit card for online shopping, you will have only one card to cancel if your card number is compromised. (It would also be wise to keep a low credit limit on that particular card.)

Look for the "http s ://" before you enter personal information. When you see that (look for the "s"), it should indicate that you are transmitting data within a secure site. Depending on your browser, you may also see a padlock symbol at the bottom of the browser window.

Watch what you click – and watch out for fake sites. Pop-ups, attachments from mysterious sources, dubious links – do not be tempted to explore where they lead. Hackers have created all manner of "phishing" sites and online surveys – seemingly legitimate, but set up to siphon your information. It is better to be skeptical.

Protect your PC. When did you install the security and firewall programs on your computer? Have you updated them recently?

Change stored passwords frequently. Make them unique and obscure. It is a good idea to change or update your passwords once in a while. Mix letters and numbers, and use an uppercase letter if possible. Never use "password" or your birth date as your password!

Don't shop using an unsecured wi-fi connection. You are really leaving yourself open to identity theft if you shop using public wi-fi. Put away the laptop and wait until you are on a secure, private internet connection. Hackers can tap into your Smartphone via the same tactics by which they can invade your PC.

Awesome Sauce Cards have been given to each Supervisor to distribute when they witness or become aware of team members who exhibit any of these keys to success in our organization. Awesome Sauce Cards can be redeemed in HR for T-Shirts, Mugs, Tumblers, or Gift Cards. Awesome Sauce team members may also save cards to redeem for prizes such as hats, beanies, and hoodies. All redeemed Awesome Sauce Cards will be placed in a drawing at the end of the year for a grand prize winner.
