

Family Lawyers empowering you to recreate your life
during separation
and divorce

Separation, divorce and family conflict can be tough

We know you might be feeling:

- ✓ Overwhelmed and confused about what comes next
- ✓ Discomfort at living a life 'on pause'
- ✓ Worried about the cost of separation and divorce
- ✓ Concerned that you will lose control in the legal process

Reclaim certainty during times of upheaval and change

An advocate for you

We'll meet you where you're at, to guide you every step of the way. We listen to you. We'll talk you through your options and give you clarity to see a way forward.

Expert team with heart

You'll have a team of specialists in family law and dispute resolution behind you. We operate from a place of compassion and work with you to get the best outcome possible.

Empower you with choice

We know legal costs and decisions can feel daunting. We're transparent about our fees and offer a range of service delivery options tailored to your needs and situation.

Get your life back on track

Whether you've been separated for a while, thinking about separating or you're newly separated and struggling to find your feet, we know you want some resolution and clarity.

To get there, you need access to the right experience and guidance. Someone in your corner, and who you can rely on to support you to get outcomes, all delivered with compassion and care.

The problem is that life is full, there are so many options to consider and so much to navigate... it's overwhelming!

We believe that no one should have to feel like their life is on hold. That's why our team of trauma-informed, family law experts work together to get things moving and get the best results for you.

With a mix of compassion, skill and life experience we cut through the lawyer-speak, clearly explain your options and provide the support and guidance you need to move on.

What our clients say

"I had Catherine Coles as my lawyer in a family matter that was very complex. She was professional and helpful in my case. I was able to reflect deeply on my situation and make hard but logical decisions. I am grateful for her service and highly recommend her." – CS

"Amazing lawyers, friendly and very knowledgeable. Jacquelyn has helped me on many occasions regarding family issues and she made me feel comfortable and not forced into anything." – Kylie D

"Debra and her team of lawyers not only responded with sound advice in a timely manner but went above and beyond to make sure I felt nurtured and safe during my court proceedings. I would highly recommend her to anyone going through a legal proceeding." – Cayley W

Ready to take the next step?

1

Book a consultation

You're busy – we get it! Save time with an appointment type that suits you – free, online, in-person, over lunch or after-hours.

2

Meet with us

We'll get to know each other. You decide if we're the right fit, and the level of service you'd like. We'll advise you about your options and recommend next steps.

3

Move forward

We'll help you develop a clear action plan tailored for your situation. With clarity about your options and entitlements, you'll feel confident and in control to move ahead.

Our services

Separation
and divorce

Parenting and custody arrangements

De facto breakups

Family violence and protection orders

International family law

Child support

Spouse maintenance

Mediation services

Relocation after separation

Adoption and surrogacy

Court representation

Collaborative
family law

Free guide to separation

Our free guide tells you in more detail what you need to know if you're considering separation, including what the next steps and options are.

Visit www.parkercolescurtis.com.au/separation-guide to access the free guide.

Guide to separation

A simple guide to help you understand what you need to know if you're considering separation or divorce

parker coles curtis

Contact us

02 5114 2660

hello@parkercolescurtis.com.au

parkercolescurtis.com.au

parker coles curtis 